Judges

Your projects will be scored by operators, creators, and builders from Stuttgart's startup and media scene.

Carlos Schöning

Co-Founder & Co-CEO, Globalist

Carlos Schöning is Co-Founder and Co-CEO of Globalist, a leading performance marketing agency from Stuttgart with over 50 employees that manages €80M+ in annual ad spend across 120+ clients. In parallel, he is Managing Director of gerryweber.de and golf24.com, and operates hobbyhorse24.com. His current focus is transforming Globalist into a Commerce Operating System: a strategic response to the AI-driven reshaping of the agency market. Carlos brings an operator's perspective to early-stage evaluation: concrete and results-oriented.

Adam Vagovic

Content creator & entrepreneur

Adam Vagovic is a 17-year-old content creator and entrepreneur from Stuttgart. He's been creating content since he was 9 and now runs several YouTube channels that reach millions of viewers each month. His most famous channel has almost 200,000 subscribers. He's also building his own YouTube automation software and developing a mobile game for his audience called Candy Fusion. Outside of content creation, he's a member of Stuttgart's Youth Council and works on projects around technology, media, and social impact.

Veljko

Startup Manager, Stuttgart Media University

Veljko has built digital products as a designer, developer, CTO, and founder. He's now Startup Manager at Stuttgart Media University and runs the Sandbox Accelerator, where he works with hundreds of software startups each year. His work has earned SXSW Interactive recognition, a Webby nomination, and an Axel Springer Media Entrepreneur title.

Marvin Herzog

Founder, Studio Zeil & The Future Creatives

Marvin Herzog is founder of Studio Zeil, a creative agency for content production and social media marketing in Stuttgart. He works with clients like Mercedes-Benz, Porsche, dm, and VfB Stuttgart. He also founded The Future Social, a conference and community platform for creators that brought over 550 guests and 60 speakers to Stuttgart in 2025. Right now he is building the next chapter of that platform with The Future Creatives.
